

Old world inspired. Surpassing new world standards. Seven words. One idea.

Our tagline sums up the philosophy behind all our wines. It's an idea that traces back to our founder, Catharine Niven, and her original vision. Today, that vision continues under the watchful eyes of the third generation and our winemaker, Christian Roguenant. He vint wines that are true to the vineyard and varietal in the old world tradition. Yet, he creates completely modern wines that go beyond the new world standard. Baileyana wines combine the best of both worlds, old and new, with estate wines of concentrated flavors and balanced acidity.
